For your assignment:

Using the Writing 39C Research Guide, begin to do a search for your paper.

Possible Topic: ____________________________________________

Alternative search terms: __________________________________

_______________________________________________________

Revised Topic: ____________________________________________

Find at least 1 article and write down the citation elements here:

Author(s) (last, first name format):

Year of publication:

Title of article:

Title of journal:

Volume, Issue, and page numbers:

In the box, write the complete citation for an article you think you will use for your paper. Use the correct citation style.

MLA example:

Questions to consider about your article:

- What education, experience or background does this author have which contributes to their being an authority on the topic?

- Who is the intended audience for the book or article and how does that influence how the information is presented?

- How does this work contribute to your argument or support your claims about your topic?

- What are the main findings of the research or the main conclusions of the author(s)?